

NAME : Mohammad Yusril

DEPARTMENT : IPIEF

1. Background

background of this activity is so that students not only get teaching from campus but also know the outside world they are going to take and need to gain experience outside of campus as perfecting students in general before practicing the practice must always be based on the subject theory given by each -Each lecturer applies theoretical theory that has been given through practice that can be done where students gain knowledge besides getting class theory from lecturer books and each theory from several courses taken through fieldwork assignments is one of the compulsory subjects what must be taken by economics students in this course are lectures outside the campus of the economics and business faculties of the University of Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta which are held in certain places determined by students in accordance with the specificity program pursued such as in the country u in Surabaya and Bali or abroad such as Thailand Malaysia and Singapore this field lecture is an activity to find out how much the company is doing activities or how much the university is doing activities such as the financial process of the process of human resource production process and knowing how important the company is and The University will implement technology and expertise in its companies and universities to be more developed and advanced.

2. Program Objectives

As for the objectives to be achieved from the implementation of this field work lecture :

1. gives a direct description of students about the world of universities abroad.
2. Provides knowledge about the development

3. University providing opportunities for students to practice learning in a university
4. University showing students how the way the University has minimal time schedule management and so on,
5. know the field or type of work or profession or department at the University

3. Benefits of the Program

benefits for students

- 1.) To know firsthand how the University management and management of students in better things
- 2.) practice the theories that have been obtained in the process of activities at the university
- 3.) inspire and motivate students to always be passionate in carrying out tasks that being on campus
- 4.) can apply the knowledge gained during lectures in the world of education and increase broader insight and experience about the world of education abroad.

5. Programs and implementation

The activities of this visit to visit field at Khon Khen University of Thailand and Thailand University Indonesia and the last at the center of Mayhadiyah Malaysia at 02-08 April 2019

6. Documentations

